Celebrating school sports achievements of local young athletes

Thirty-one seniors connected with the basketball programs at Farragut, Hardin Valley Academy and Bearden high schools were recognized individually, alongside family members, between varsity games late in the 2023-24 season.

Eight were highlighted in FHS's Lynn E. Sexton Gymnasium Thursday night, Feb. 8, between varsity games versus Kingston: four boys and three girls basketball players plus one dance team member. Four others, all cheerleaders, were previously recognized at a late-season home game because they were involved in a competition Feb. 8.

Eleven HVA seniors took center court with their families — one boys basketball, seven cheerleaders and three dance team members (no senior girls basketball players) — Tuesday night, Feb. 6, between home varsity games against Knoxville West.

Eight were highlighted at BHS — all connected with Dawgs and Lady Bulldogs basketball — between varsity games versus William Blount Monday night, Feb. 5.

Also included in this Senior Night section are 7 senior wrestlers recognized at Hardin Valley Academy.
