Buddy's bar-b-q 'doubles up,' Juice Bar is 'sweet without sugar' as Reader's Choice winners

ALAN SLOAN
editor@farragutpress.com

If visiting 121 West End Ave., you'll be in the midst of a perennial winning restaurant — and repeat winner in two categories — in farragutpress' 2020 Reader's Choice Awards for Town businesses.

It's no wonder Farragut's Buddy's bar-b-q proved to be most popular once again as "Best Barbecue" and "Best Caterer" in a recent survey of Town residents.

After all, co-owner Jaime Smothers Lemoncelli is the granddaughter of Buddy's founder, Buddy Smothers.

"Obviously we're elated to win it; I know we've won it in years past," said Mark Lemoncelli, a co-owner of the Farragut location along with being president/CEO of the company. "Being that it's Reader's Choice, it kinda hits home as to where we stand in the Farragut community."

Meanwhile, if you are looking to free yourself of refined sugar — and still enjoy sweet treats, a relatively new business stood tall and also captured a 2020 Reader's Choice Award.

Juice Bar, 11681 Parkside Drive, was named, appropriately enough, "Best Juice Bar." Co-owners Hien Pham and his wife, Christina Nguyen, accomplished this recognition of success despite owning the business — also including a location in Bearden — for less than 14 months (May 16, 2019).

"Both my wife and I were very excited about that," Pham said about winning.

These were among 96 overall Reader's Choice first-place winners, which are celebrated annually in this section.

To find out the ingredients of success, let's take a closer look at Buddy's bar-b-q and Juice Bar.

Buddy's bar-b-q

The Farragut location, open for roughly 30 years according to Lemoncelli, carries on a special tradition.

Buddy's "has been in business since 1972, 48 years, and what hits home the most is our value and the consistent quality of food we provide at a fair price," he added about the Farragut restaurant being among 16 current, and two soon-to-open, locations from Bristol to Chattanooga. "I think that's what keeps the loyal customers coming."

As for the most popular menu items, "Our top seller every day, of course, is our traditional pork sandwich," Lemoncelli said. "And our wings are wildly popular these days."

Roughly 30 employees are the backbone of Buddy's popularity and success at the Farragut location, led by general manager

Dorris Ashton, left, general manager of Buddy's bar-b-q in Farragut, and Karen Nelson, Farragut location assistant manager, were two of the reasons this West End Avenue restaurant earned a pair of 2020 farragutpress Readers Choice Awards. It was named "Best Barbecue" and "Best Caterer" in a recent survey of Farragut residents.

"We're very proud of the level of service we provide," Lemoncelli said. "We have long tenures (of employment) on aver-

Within the company, for example, "The average general manager has probably a 20-plus-year tenure with Buddy's," he added

On the other hand, at the Farragut location in particular, "We hire a lot of high school kids," the relatively new president/CEO said about giving many teenagers ages 15 and above their first employment experience.

Further enhancing the dining experience at the Farragut Buddy's, "We just did a major remodel," he said about the upgrades, which began late in 2019 and were completed in January. "We completely re-modeled that Farragut store.

"That was kind of a prideful thing for us," Lemoncelli added. "... That's the look and feel that all of our new stores are going to have. ... And as we re-model additional stores, they'll look like that."

While Jaime Lemoncelli has the family linage — which also included her father, Mark Smothers, as company president/ CEO after Buddy Smothers retired — "I've been involved since last February," Lemoncelli said about recently taking over for his retiring father-in-law.

Restaurant hours are from 10:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., Sunday through Thursday; and from 10:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., Friday and Saturday.

Juice Bar

With the business having existed since 2012 according to Pham, "We were looking for a way to turnaround Juice Bar and get it back to the way it was," he added.

Relaying customer feedback, Pham said he is told, "'We are nicer and we are cleaner.'

"The cleanliness is actually what brought us to the front line," he added. "Ever before this pandemic, we were known for that."

As for another major key to success, "We are known for super-healthy drinks," Pham said. "What we sell is all natural — no sugar, no syrup, no ice, no water. ... We don't even buy sugar.

However, "We actually use honey," he added.

"... What we sell is straight coldpressed juice, and smoothies straight from frozen fruit."

The business' top-selling juice is "Sweet Greens," Pham said about "the vegetable most people don't want to think about as a drink. ... It's just pressed juice, but it tastes really good without sugar or any kind of syrup."

Acai Bowl, another menu favorite from the acai berry, "Is a Smoothie bowl. A lot of people don't know that you can actually eat a Smoothie in a bowl," he said.

In fact, "It's a complete meal in one ... it's organic," Pham added. "It has fruit in it, it has dressing with almond butter and honey."

In addition, "Especially in summertime, Smoothies in general are some of our best sellers," he said. "We have so many different kinds."

Helping make Farragut's Juice Bar popular and successful are anywhere from eight to 10 employees, led by general manager Elisabeth Goldschmitt. "We appreciate and we love our employees," Pham said. "They are hard working, and customer service is a No. 1 priority."

As for Goldschmitt, "She has been superb," he added.

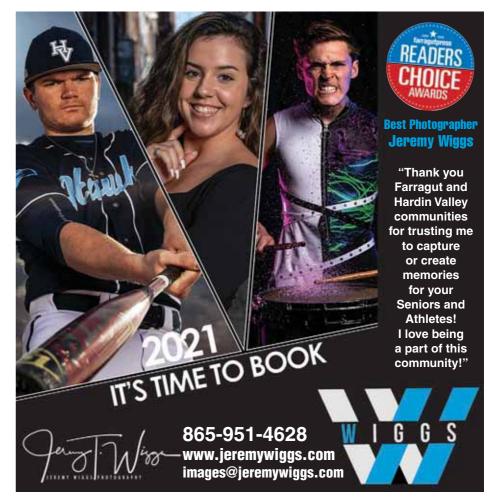

While saying "the most critical part of any business is to survive the first year," Pham admitted the couple and employees had to overcome "a lot of turbulence" that comes with operating most any first-year business.

"And then we faced the pandemic, which is tough for everyone," he added. However, "Farragut is phenomenal,"

Pham said. "This community has supported us through just about everything."

Business hours are from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday.

I love juice bar is on a mission to create great tasting and nutritious juices, smoothies, bowls and bites. our menu is full of fresh offerings that are equally craveable and guilt-free.

We take a lot of pride in serving products that are high in nutritional value. our juices are made fresh to order, and our smoothies are made with frozen fruit instead of ice – which is commonly used by other companies as a filler ingredient. we want your drinks to be full of nourishment, not fillers. best of all, we have created a juice bar experience built on convenience. we believe healthy food should be as accessible as fast food. so beyond our made-to-order menu, all of our stores are stocked with grab-and-go options that are perfect for a quick, healthy bite or sip.

Whether you are a juicing novice or you're a smoothie pro, we've crafted unique recipes that are packed with nutrition, taste amazing and are a quick way to fuel up on healthy ingredients!

We now offer Ubereats, Grubhub, and Bitesquad deliveries along with curbside pickup.
