THE VOTES ARE IN

farragutpress readers make their choices for their favorite businesses within reading area

Readers of farragutpress recently cast their ballots for their favorites in the SEVENTH ANNUAL “READERS’ CHOICE” AWARDS.

Readers used ballots printed in the paper (which had to be the actual ballots — not reproductions – to be counted) to vote for their favorite Farragut-area businesses in a variety of categories. The complete list of winners can be found on pages 6-7 of this section.

A few of your favorites are highlighted here:

For the sixth year in a row, Mansour Hasan – State Farm was named “Best Insurance Agency” by farragutpress’ “Readers Choice Awards,” and owner Mansour Hasan is thankful for the honor.

“Winning the Best Insurance Agency in Farragut means a lot to us,” he said. “We strive everyday to serve our customers and to do what is right every single time. Our mission is to connect insurance to relationships so that we can positively impact people’s lives. Achieving this recognition means that this goal is really happening here in our community. Making homebuyers’ dreams a reality

Mortgage Investor’s Group makes homebuyers’ dreams a reality, as its selection for the fourth year in a row as “Best Home Mortgage Company” in farragutpress’s “Readers Choice Awards” certainly affirms.

“We are incredibly honored to have been voted as the favorite mortgage company for four consecutive years now in Farragut,” said Moneek Langston, MIG vice president of marketing. “This is a testament to our unwavering commitment to providing our clients with top-tier service and assisting them in navigating the path to homeownership.

“Winning this honor once again fills me with a great sense of pride,” she continued. “On a personal level, it is a validation of our commitment to quality and service, and it drives us to continue raising the bar. For the company as a whole, this honor is a recognition of the hard work, dedication and passion of each member of our team.

“This achievement is a clear indication that we have something special at MIG. It underscores the importance of always putting the client first and reaffirms our commitment to that principle. We will continue to strive for excellence, innovating and improving to serve our clients even better.”

In addition to this reader-selected honor, Langston points to other industry-wide acknowledgements.

“MIG is not only a trusted partner for residential home financing, but we also hold distinguished recognition in specific areas that contribute to housing accessibility and af-

Healthy, happy, engaged residents earn Villages top spot

MICHELLE HOLLENHEAD
mhollenhead@farragutpress.com

Making sure its residents are healthy, happy and engaged has made The Villages of Farragut the top vote-getter for the fourth year in a row in farragutpress’ “Readers Choice Awards” as “Best Senior Lifestyle Facility.”

“It is very important to us that our residents maintain a healthy and active lifestyle,” explained Sherry Coss, communications director for The Villages’ parent company, family-owned and operated Goodworks Unlimited, based in Franklin. “We also want to make sure they maintain active social lives, too.”

That is certainly evident, with a variety of activities planned, including weekly Happy Hours filled with music and dancing, birthday parties, Bible studies, art and craft classes, group exercise opportunities and special events.

While each resident has his or her own one- or two-bedroom apartments with a patio or sunroom option and housekeeping services, on-site amenities include a wellness center with on-site physical therapy, a billiard parlor, salon and spa and several meeting areas for fun gatherings or programs.

“We are very blessed to have excellent staffing and support,” Coss said, singling out executive director Melody Matney “who is an incredible leader, is very engaged and was boots on the ground from day one.

“Our staff takes great care of our residents, including the chef, who is top notch,” she added. “We offer an incredible restaurant-style dining experience, which our residents really enjoy.”

The lush 25-acre campus provides many outdoor opportunities, too, including a putting green, walking and bike trails and sidewalks that lead to nearby shops.

“We are also blessed with an excellent location, right in the heart of Farragut, which has offered us continuous support,” Coss said.

Its location also gives residents the opportunity to remain involved and engaged, especially through a very active Ambassadors group, which specifically and purposefully gives back to the community.

Setting the tone has been Goodworks Unlimited owners, Gary and Ricki Kerkley.

“It really makes our company unique in that it is privately owned, and it has been able to retain its focus on family,” Coss said. “When our residents move into our communities, they become part of our family, too.”

fordability,” she said.

“For instance, we’ve been the No. 1 Tennessee Housing Development Agency lender since 2003 — marking our 20th year this year. The THDA is a state agency created to promote affordable housing opportunities for Tennesseans, [which is] achieved through various programs, including providing low-interest rate mortgages for first-time homebuyers.

“Our leading position with the THDA demonstrates our commitment to making homeownership accessible for more Tennesseans, especially for those making their first steps into the housing market,” she added.

“Furthermore, since 2015, we’ve been recognized as the top USDA Lender in Tennessee. The USDA Loan Program supports affordable housing in rural areas. By offering 100 percent financing, low-interest rates and low mortgage insurance premiums, it is an ideal mortgage solution for eligible rural and suburban homebuyers.

“Our consistent top ranking highlights our commitment to extending homeownership opportunities to rural communities where conventional financing might not be readily available.

“Through these recognitions and our continued efforts, we strive to broaden the accessibility of homeownership, ensuring more individuals and families can achieve their dream of owning a home,” Langson continued. “We remain committed to serving as a beacon of guidance, illuminating the path to homeownership for more families and consequently strengthening the very fabric of the community we love and are privileged to call home.

“Affordable housing plays a crucial role in strengthening communities, improving access to opportunities and fostering economic mobility,” she added. “At MIG, we believe that everyone deserves a place to call home.”

Langston said what sets MIG apart from other lenders “is our people-centered approach. We understand that every client is unique and so are their needs. We prioritize personalization and develop mortgage solutions tailored specifically to each client. Our dedicated and experienced team works tirelessly to ensure every step of the mortgage process is seamless and that our clients are well-informed and comfortable.

“To us, the client is not just a number — but an individual with dreams and aspirations, and we see ourselves as their partners in achieving those dreams,” she added.

Hasan added. “That means we are living up to our promise to our customers.”

He started The Hasan Agency in 2006, and has been serving the Knoxville community for more than 17 years. The business was located just west of Pellissippi Parkway for 12 years until he moved it inside Farragut Town limits a little more than five years ago.

Hasan said he thinks “one thing that sets us apart is our genuine interest in understanding our customers specific needs and tailoring our insurance solutions to them. Providing these personalized services and building strong relationships with our customers sets us apart.

“In addition, we strive to provide exceptional customer service. We believe in prompt responses, clear communication, and going the extra mile for our customers.”

Working for a company that has been in business for a century is also part of the draw.

“State Farm corporately just celebrated its 100-Year Anniversary, which is quite a milestone,” Hasan noted. “We are honored to represent a company that has such a rich history in the country and locally. Each office is run as a small community business ... so even though we have such a large national presence ... local agents have a significant impact on our communities and local businesses.

“We live in this community; we sponsor sports teams, we support small local businesses, and our kids go to school here. We have a deep love and respect for the Farragut community and the entire East Tennessee area.”

Mansour Hasan employs nine fully licensed team members offering more than “80 years of combined insurance experience...so we know our insurance,” he added. For example, “One of our team members focuses solely on claims. She helps to facilitate communication between our customers and the claims department. We don’t want our customers to call and wait on hold for anyone.

“We think having a deep knowledge of the insurance industry can allow us to offer accurate and informed guidance to our customers.”

Hasan said he is grateful for the community’s support.

“We appreciate every one of our customers for putting their trust in us and allowing us to be their agency of choice,” he said. “And, we appreciate everyone who voted for our agency.”

AWARDS

WHY WERE WE VOTED THE BEST?

Our patients’ results speak for themselves. We believe that we were voted the best physical therapy clinic because of the care and service we provide to each individual that steps into our clinic. From the moment you walk in until the day you graduate, our mission is to provide high-quality, patient-centered physical rehabilitation.

We are focused on exceptional patient experience and excellent outcomes.
