The GREAT Farragut SIDEWALK SALE

to coincide with Tax-Free Weekend

Shop Farragut/Farragut Business Alliance has plans to keep the summer active with its new The Great Farragut Sidewalk Sale initiative, presented by Hearthside Bank, to coincide with the statewide Tax-Free Weekend Friday, July 26, through Sunday, July 28.

The sidewalk sale will take place all day, starting when stores open and going through each participant's normal business hours, throughout Town. "We're going to piggy-back on the Back to School initiative and get sales tax-off sales," said Steve Krempasky, SF/FBA executive director. "We're turning it into an entire event for Farragut.

"Each business has the ability to do a special event," he added.

For instance, Hearthside Bank, event sponsor, plans to cook food during the sale.

"It will allow all Farragut-based businesses, registered through Shop Farragut, to special promotional opportunities, relaxed special event permits and temporary signage requirements, plus opportunities to utilize discounted advertising in a special tab distributed by the farragutpress," Krempasky stated on the Shop Farragut website.

Moreover, it's not too late to enter: either e-mail Krempasky no later than Friday morning, July 26, at steve@shopfarragut.com or call 865-307-2486.

"This is your opportunity to take your business outside," he further stated on the site. "Let's make Farragut an outside shopping mall! Move tables of merchandise or promotional materials to your sidewalks or parking lots. Add tents, games, music, food trucks (officially permitted) or other activities to draw people to your stores."

Usually, businesses cannot put items outside of their stores without a special event permit, and normally need to do paperwork with Town of Farragut to get a special event permit.

By participating, however, "we take care of the paperwork," Krempasky said. "(Businesses) just need to sign up their shop ... that allows them to get a permit."

"We want to turn this event into one similar to a Highway 27 yard sale" he added. "I want to make it annual event."
