

HOW THE WEST WAS WON SCOREBOARD

School	Win-Loss	Points for Game	Net Difference
CAK	5-2	21-14 W	+75
Knoxville Catholic	4-2	35-6 L	+65
CCS	3-3	49-21 W	+96
HVA	3-4	28-45 L	-62
Farragut	2-5	45-28 W	-48
Bearden	0-6	24-7 L	-179
Webb	0-7	50-40 L	-171

Warriors win, Irish drop to 4-2

Carlos Reveiz, carlos@crfoto.com

FHS, 99, Owen Petoskey, 20, Connor Parris and 16, Noah Haag, break through the Hawks offensive line; tackling, HVA, QB, 5, Samuel Mann

KEN LAY
Correspondent

Week 7 of the 2025 high school football season is now in the rear-view mirror in the farragutpress How the West Was Won presented by Billy Houston Group, Realty Executives. The 2025 season is now past the halfway point for point for all area teams.

Christian Academy of Knoxville (5-2) was victorious last week, notching a 21-14 win over Chattanooga Christian School and became first area team to reach five wins in 2025.

Quarterback Sawyer Anderson rushed for 111 rushing yards and a touchdown on 12 carries. He also had 72 passing yards. Running back Ryan Gibson amassed 147 yards and scored two touchdowns. Defensively, Collin Crider had 12 tackles, four tackles for loss and two sacks in the contest. The Warriors will be idle this week.

Knoxville Catholic dropped to 4-2 with a 35-6 loss to Ensworth on the road Friday night. Tyreek King had three receptions for 75 yards. The Irish will be one of two local teams in action this week. Catholic will travel to Knoxville Halls on Thursday in a game that was added to the schedule late after The King's Academy dropped its program, forcing the Red Devils to look for a replacement game.

Concord Christian School will be the other local team in action this week as its schedule also was affected by the suspension of TKA's program. The Lions will play the Georgia Force, a home-school team Atlanta.

Concord (3-3) snapped a two-game losing streak and notched a 49-21 region win over Providence Academy. It was the Lions' first region victory in school history.

Kohbe Ward had 218 rushing yards and two touchdowns and also threw a touchdown pass while compiling 171 passing yards. Maurice Smith was a two-way star for the Lions as he rushed for 175 yards and three touchdowns on offense.

Defensively, Smith came up with six tackles.

Meanwhile, in a Region 2-6A game featuring two area teams, Farragut picked up its second consecutive win and improved to 2-5 as it outlasted Hardin Valley Academy, 45-28 at Bill Clabo Field.

Farragut's Ethan Farhat scored on a 99-yard kickoff return and had seven receptions for 153 yards and a touchdown. Quarterback Corbin Hobson threw 282 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, Owen Petoesky had 10 tackles and a sack for the Admirals.

The Hawks (3-4) got a big game from Nick Rivers, who had a 50-yard return. Samuel Mann had a 12-yard touchdown run and Brody Lamb chipped in with a 10-yard scoring run.

Bearden's struggles continued as the Bulldogs fell, 34-6, at Oak Ridge Friday night. Bearden fell behind early and trailed, 34-0, by halftime.

Daveon Maynard had seven tackles for the Bulldogs while Liam Powers had five tackles and recovered a fumble for Bearden (0-6).

Webb School of Knoxville also remained winless as it fell to Notre Dame, 50-40, in a shootout.

Shavar Young had 158 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries. He also had eight receptions for 132 yards and caught a touchdown pass.

REAL ESTATE IS A TEAM SPORT AND I'M ON YOUR SIDE!

You wouldn't go into the fourth quarter without a game plan — and you shouldn't enter the real estate market without one either.

BILLYHOUSTON
REALTY EXECUTIVES Group

124 N WINSTON ROAD, SUITE 201 | KNOXVILLE, TN 37919 | BILLYHOUSTONGROUP.COM

BILLY HOUSTON
865.207.1212
865.577.SOLD