Tennessee families have the support they need. That's what makes this tailgate so much fun."

"As a musician, I've played at a lot of fundraisers, but this one means the most to me," Landeo said. "I want to do whatever I can to help."

For more information, visit alzTennessee.org/Tailgate or contact Alzheimer's Tennessee.

Another upcoming event is Walmart 500 Monday through Friday, September 21-25, at area Walmart locations.

"Keep an eye out for Alzheimer's Tennessee teams at local Walmart stores throughout that week when they will be bringing awareness, sharing educational resources and spotlighting the lifesaving Silver Alert program," Moore said.

"Since its launch in 2021, Silver Alert has helped return more than 500 at-risk adults with cognitive challenges safely to their families in Tennessee," he said. "Stop by to learn more, pick up helpful information, a Silver Alert Kit — a wandering prevention resource and forms helping first responders in the event wandering does occur — plus discover how you can support this vital community safety effort."

Also, Alzheimers Tennessee will hold:

- a half-day Caring and Coping Workshop Tuesday, Sept. 29, at Cedar Springs Presbyterian Church, 9132 Kingston Pike. It offers expert advice and practical support for caregivers and families. Nationally recognized speakers, Dr. Monica Crane and Melanie Bunn, will share strategies, hope, and encouragement for those on the dementia journey.

- Boos, Brews & Bingo, hosted by Business Professionals Against Alzheimer's, on Thursday, Oct. 1, at Orange Hat Brewing Company off Hardin Valley Road. This event brings together the Halloween spirit, craft beer and fierce Bingo competition, all for a good cause.

- 34th Annual Smoky Mountain Walk to Make Alzheimer's a Memory Oct. 24, Saturday, Oct. 24, in Sevier County High School to raise awareness and bring the community together. This year's fundraising goal is $160,000—all to stay in East Tennessee.

- an online Alzheimer's Disease Management & Research Symposium Thursday and Friday, Nov. 12-13. This two-day virtual gathering brings together leading experts in brain health and care. Open to physicians, caregivers and anyone interested in learning more about dementia research and best practices.

- Give Back Days: Throughout the season, local businesses across the area are hosting special Give Back Days where a portion of sales supports Alzheimer's Tennessee. These events are a simple, fun way to help and see the power of small acts add up for local families.

"These events are where the heart of Farragut and Knoxville really shines," Moore said. "Whether it's cheering at the Landeo Tailgate, learning at a caregiver workshop, or coming together for a walk, you see neighbors connecting and supporting each other in ways that matter. The best part is knowing every dollar raised stays right here, helping local families facing Alzheimer's. That's what makes these events so special to all of us."
